NOTIFICATION.

No. R. L. 55—Legis. 7-48-1, dated Bangalore, the 20th July 1948.

Ordered that the accompanying Mysore Prohibition Act, 1948, which received the assent of His Highness the Maharaja, on the 13th day of July 1948, be published as Act No. XXXVII of 1948, in the Mysore Gazette for general information.

S. KANAKARATNARAJ,

Legal Remembrancer and Secretary to Government,
Law Department.

ACT No. XXXVII OF 1948.

THE MYSORE PROHIBITION ACT, 1948.

(Received the assent of His Highness the Maharaja on the 13th day of July 1948).

An Act to introduce and extend the Prohibition of the manufacture, sale and consumption of intoxicating liquors and drugs in Mysore.

WHEREAS it is expedient, as early as possible, to bring about the prohibition except for medicinal, scientific or industrial or such like purposes, of the production, manufacture, possession, export, import, transport, purchase, sale and consumption of intoxicating liquors and drugs in Mysore;

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to give effect to the abovementioned policy by introducing it in certain selected areas in Mysore and to utilise the experience gained therein for extending it to the other areas thereof;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Mysore Prohibition Act, 1948.

(2) It extends to the whole of Mysore.

(3) (a) It shall be deemed to have come into force in the districts of Kolar, Chitaldrug and Tumkur from the first day of July 1948.

(b) This section and sections 3 and 7 shall come into force throughout the rest of Mysore at once, and the rest of the Act shall come into force in any other local area in Mysore on such date as the Government may, by notification, appoint.

Repeals.

2. From the date on which the provisions of this Act other than Sections 1, 3 and 7 come into force in any local area, the enactments mentioned in the Schedule shall cease to be in force in such area to the extent specified in the third column thereof:

Provided that the Government may, by notification, declare that the provisions of this Act other than Sections 1, 3 and 7 shall cease to be in force in any local area on such dates as may be specified in the notification, and thereupon, the enactments mentioned in the Schedule with any subsequent statutory modifications thereof shall revive and come into force in such area with effect on and from such date.

(j) consumes or buys liquor or any intoxicating drug ; or

(k) wilfully allows any of the acts aforesaid upon premises in his immediate possession ;

shall be punished :—

(i) in the case of an offence falling under clause (b), clause (f), clause (g), clause (h) or clause (i) or an offence falling under clause (k) in so far as it relates to an act specified in any of the clauses aforesaid, with imprisonment which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both ;

(ii) in the case of an offence falling under clause (a) except for possession, clause (c), clause (d), clause (e) and clause (j), with imprisonment up to one year, or with fine extending to rupees two thousand, or with both; and

(iii) in any other case with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to any act done under, and in accordance with, the provisions of this Act or the terms of any rule, notification, order, license or permit issued thereunder.

(2) It shall be presumed until the contrary is shown—.

(a) that a person accused of any offence under clauses (a) to (j) of sub-section (1) has committed such offence in respect of any liquor or intoxicating drug or any still, utensil, implement or apparatus whatsoever for the tapping of toddy or the manufacture of liquor or any intoxicating drug, or any such materials as are ordinarily used in the tapping of toddy or the manufacture of liquor or any intoxicating drug, for the possession of which he is unable to account satisfactorily; and

(b) that a person accused of any offence under clause (k) of sub-section (1) has committed such offence if an offence is proved to have been committed in premises in his immediate possession in respect of any liquor or intoxicating drug or any still, utensil, implement or apparatus whatsoever for the tapping of toddy or the manufacture of liquor or any intoxicating drug, or any such materials as are ordinarily used in the tapping of toddy or the manufacture of liquor or any intoxicating drug.

Punishment for being found in a state of intoxication

5. Whoever is found in a state of intoxication in any public place and whoever, not having been permitted to consume any liquor or intoxicating drug in pursuance of this Act, is found in a state of intoxication in any private place, shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

Punishment for rendering or attempting to render denatured spirits for human consumption.

6. Whoever renders or attempts to render fit for human consumption any spirit, whether manufactured in Mysore or not, which has been denatured or has, in his possession any spirit in respect of which he knows or has reason to believe that any such attempt has been made shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both.

For the purpose of this Section it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that any spirit which is proved on chemical analysis to contain any quantity of any of the prescribed denaturants is or contains or has been derived from denatured spirit.

Prohibition of advertisements.

7. Whoever prints or publishes in any newspaper, book, leaflet, booklet or any other single or periodical publication or otherwise displays or distributes any advertisement or other matter commending, soliciting the use of, or offering any liquor or intoxicating drug other than liquor or drugs exempted under Section 17, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees :

Provided that this Section shall not apply :—

(a) to plain catalogues and prices lists which may be generally or specially approved by the Commissioner ; or

(b) to advertisements in medical journals, or to notices and literature circulated exclusively to members of the medical profession, if such advertisements, notices or literature relate to any liquor or intoxicating drug which has been specially approved as of medicinal value :—

(i) by the Medical Council established by the Mysore Medical Registration Act, 1931 ; or

(ii) by any other Medical Council which has been established under any law for the time being in force in any Province in India or in any State which has before or after the commencement of this Act acceded to the Dominion of India or which has been recognized by the Government of such Province or State ; or

(iii) by such authority in respect of Indian Medicine as may be notified by the Government ; or

(c) to the normal circulation within the State of newspapers, periodicals and books printed and published in accordance with the law outside Mysore; or

(d) to any advertisement contained in a newspaper printed and published in Mysore before the first day of July 1948.

Punishment for conspiracy.

8. When two or more persons agree—

(a) to commit or cause to be committed any offence under sub-section (1) of Section 4 or under Section 6 or

(b) to evade or nullify the provisions of this Act in any area where it is in force, each of such persons shall, notwithstanding that no act except the agreement was done by any of the parties thereto in pursuance thereof or that the agreement was made or the operations thereunder took place in an area to which this Act has not been extended, be punished with imprisonment which may extend to three years or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both.

Punishment for vexatious search or arrest.

9. Any officer or person exercising powers under this Act, who—

(a) without reasonable ground of suspicion, enters or searches or causes to be searched, any closed place; or

(b) vexatiously and unnecessarily seizes the property of any person on the pretence of seizing or searching for anything liable to confiscation under this Act, or

(c) vexatiously and unnecessarily detains, searches or arrests any person; or

(d) maliciously and falsely lays informations leading to a search, seizure, detention or arrest; or (e) in any other way maliciously exceeds his lawful powers, shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

Punishment for vexatious delay.

10. Any officer or person exercising powers under this Act, who vexatiously and unnecessarily delays forwarding to a Prohibition Officer or to the officer in charge of the nearest police station as required by Section 41, any person arrested or any article seized under this Act, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Punishment for abetment of escape of persons arrested, etc.

11. Any officer or person exercising powers under this Act, who—

(a) unlawfully releases or abets the escape of any persons arrested under this Act, or abets the commission of any offence against this Act; or

(b) acts in any manner inconsistent with his duty for the purpose of enabling any person to do anything whereby any of the provisions of this Act may be evaded or broken, and any other officer of the Government or of a local body who abets the commission of any offence against this Act, shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

Punishment for offences not otherwise provided for.

12. Whoever is guilty of any wilful act or intentional omission in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act, or of any rule, notification or order made thereunder and not otherwise provided for in this Act, shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

Punishment for abetment of offence against Act in area to which Act is not extended.

13. Where any offence against this Act is committed in any area to which it has been extended, whoever commits, or attempts to commit or abets the commission of, any of the acts making up the offence shall be liable to be punished therefor, whether such commission, attempt or abetment takes place within or outside such area.

Things liable to confiscation.

14. In any case in which an offence has been committed against this Act, the liquor, drug, materials, still, utensil, implement, or apparatus in respect of or by means of which the offence has been committed shall be liable to confiscation along with the receptacles, packages, coverings, animals, vessels, carts or other vehicles used to hold or carry the same.

Confiscation how ordered.

15. (1) When the offender is convicted or when the person charged with an offence against this act is acquitted, but the Court decides that anything is liable to confiscation, such confiscation may be ordered by the Court.

(2) When the offence against this Act has been committed but the offender is not known, or cannot be found or when anything liable to confiscation under this Act, and not in the possession of any person cannot be satisfactorily accounted for, the case shall be inquired into and determined by the Deputy Commissioner or other Prohibition Officer in charge of the district or by any other officer authorised by the Government in that behalf, who may order such confiscation :

Provided that no such order shall be made until the expiration of fifteen days from the date of seizing the things intended to be confiscated or without hearing the persons, if any, claiming any right thereto, and evidence, if any, which they produce in support of their claims.

Offence under Act to be cognizable.

16. All offences under this Act shall be cognizable and the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure with respect to cognizable offences shall apply to them.

CHAPTER III.

EXEMPTIONS AND LICENSES.

Power to notify exemptions.

17. (1) The Government may, by notification and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, exempt any specified liquor or intoxicating drug or article containing such liquor or drug from the observance of all or any of the provisions of this Act on the ground that such liquor, drug or article is required for a medicinal, scientific, industrial or such like purpose.

(2) When issuing a notification under sub-section (1), the Government shall have power to provide that a breach of any of the conditions subject to which the exemption is notified shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

Authorities for bona fide religious purposes.

18. The Government shall make suitable provision for issuing "Authorities" to persons and institutions for the possession and use of such liquor as may be required by them for any bona fide religious purposes in accordance with ancient customs, under such terms and conditions, and penalties for infringement, as may be prescribed.

Exemption of bona fide travellers and lawful consignments.

19. Until the Government by notification otherwise directs the provisions of this Act shall not be deemed to apply—

(a) to liquor in the possession of bona fide travellers for their own personal use while passing through any local area in which this Act is in force; or

(b) to lawful consignments of liquor or intoxicating drugs carried through or into any such local area.

Exemption of armed forces.

20. (1) The Government may, by notification and subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, exempt members of the Mysore State Forces or of the armed forces raised and maintained by the Government of India or attached to or operating with any of its armed forces, and the members of the medical or other staff attached to any of the forces aforesaid, from all or any of the provisions of this Act.

(2) When issuing a notification under sub-section (1) the Government shall have power to provide that a breach of any of the conditions subject to which the exemption is notified shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

Licenses for bona fide medicinal or other purposes.

21. The Government or subject to the control of the Government, the Deputy Commissioner may issue licenses to any person or in respect of any institution whether under the management of Government or not, for the manufacture, export, import, transport, sale, or possession of any liquor, intoxicating drug or article containing such liquor or drug, on the ground that such liquor, drug or article is required by such person or in respect of such institution for a bona fide medicinal, scientific, industrial or such like purpose.

Licenses for tapping for sweet toddy, etc.

22. Subject to the control of Government, the Deputy Commissioner or any officer empowered by him may issue—

(a) licenses for the tapping of any trees for sweet toddy for consumption thereof without fermentation or for the manufacture of jaggery therefrom; or

(b) permits for the possession, transport or sale of such toddy.

Permits and licenses.

23. The Government or any officer empowered by them in this behalf may issue—

(a) permits authorising any person to consume and possess for personal consumption any liquor or intoxicating drug;

(b) licenses to any institution to possess liquor and issue it to such of its members as hold permits under clause (a).

(c) licenses to any person in charge of a restaurant car attached to a railway train to possess liquor and serve it to bona fide passengers travelling by the train; and

(d) licenses to any person to possess liquor and issue it to those holding permits or licenses under this Act.

Form and conditions of licenses and permits.

24. Every license or permit granted under sections 21, 22 and 23 shall—

(1) be granted on payment of such fees, if any, for such period, and subject to such restrictions and limitations and on such conditions; and

(2) be in such form and contain such particulars as the Government may direct either generally or in any particular case.

Counterpart agreement to be executed by licensees.

25. Every person taking out any license or permit under sections 21, 22 or 23 may be required to execute a counterpart agreement in conformity with the tenor of his license or permit, and to give such security for the performance of his agreement as the Deputy Commissioner may require.

Powers to cancel or suspend licenses and permits.

26. (1) The Deputy Commissioner may cancel or suspend any such license or permit—

(a) if any fee payable by the holder thereof be not duly paid; or

(b) in the event of any breach by the holder of such license or permit or by his servants or by any one acting with his express or implied permission on his behalf, of any of the terms or conditions of such license or permits; or

(c) if the holder thereof is convicted of any offence against this Act, or of any cognizable and non-bailable offence; or

(d) if the conditions of such license or permit provide for its cancellation or suspension at will; or

(e) if the purpose for which the license or permit is granted ceases to exist.

(2) The Government may cancel or suspend any such license or permit without assigning the aforesaid or any other reasons.

Penalty for breach of the conditions of licenses and permit.

27. In the event of any breach by the holder of such license or permit or by his servants or by any one acting with his express or implied permission on his behalf, of any of the terms or conditions of such license or permit, such holder shall, in addition to the cancellation or suspension of the license or permit granted to him, be punished with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both, unless he shall establish that all due and reasonable precautions were exercised by him to prevent any such breach.

Any person who commits any such breach shall, whether he acts with or without the permission of the holder of the license or permit, be liable to the same punishment.

CHAPTER IV.

ESTABLISHMENT AND CONTROL.

Appointmen t of officers and withdrawal of powers.

28. The Government may, from time to time, by notification—

(a) appoint an officer to exercise all the powers of a Deputy Commissioner under this Act in all local areas in which it is in force and to have the control of the administration of the provisions of this Act in such areas ;

(b) appoint any person other than the Deputy Commissioner of the District to exercise within a District all or any of the powers and to perform all or any of the duties of a Deputy Commissioner under this Act, either concurrently with or in exclusion of the Deputy Commissioner of the District, subject to such control as Government may from time to time direct ;

(c) withdraw from the Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner of the District any or all of the powers conferred on him by this Act ;

(d) appoint paid or honorary officers with such designations, powers and duties as the Government may think fit ;

(e) order that all or any of the powers and duties assigned to any person under clause (d) shall be exercised and performed by any existing Government official or any other person ; and

(f) delegate to any Prohibition Officer all or any of its powers under this Act.

29. (1) The Government may appoint for every district a Prohibition Committee to assist the Deputy Commissioner or other Prohibition Officer in charge of the district in the administration of the Act, and to review generally and with reference to the work of Prohibition Committees constituted under clause (i) of sub-section (2) the progress of prohibition in the district. The members of the said Committee shall exercise such powers and perform such functions as the Government may by rules prescribe.

Prohibition Committees.

(2) (i) The Deputy Commissioner, or other Prohibition Officer in charge of a district may constitute Prohibition Committees one for every taluk or for a smaller area to assist him in carrying out the objects of this Act in the district,

(ii) Every member of a Prohibition Committee constituted under clause (i) shall observe the working of this Act in his taluk or area and report thereon and on every matter connected therewith at the prescribed intervals and at any other time he thinks fit, to the Deputy Commissioner or other Prohibition Officer aforesaid.

(3) Every member of a Prohibition Committee appointed under sub-section (1) or constituted under clause (i) of sub-section (2) shall be entitled to give information at any police station in his district, taluk or area, as the case may be, regarding the commission or suspected commission of any offence against this Act in such district, taluk or area, and the officer in charge of such station shall take action on such information and investigate the case in the manner laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Power of Government to authorise officers to admit persons arrested to bail.

30. The Government may, by notification, and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in such notification, empower all or any of the officers or classes of officers or persons mentioned in Section 35 throughout Mysore or in any local area, to admit a person arrested under that section to bail to appear, when summoned or otherwise directed, before a Police or Prohibition Officer or Magistrate having jurisdiction to inquire into the offence for which such person has been arrested, and may cancel or vary such notification.

CHAPTER V.

POWERS, DUTIES AND PROCEDURE OF OFFICERS, ETC.

Issue of search warrants.

31. If any Deputy Commissioner, Prohibition Officer, or Magistrate upon information, obtained and after such inquiry as he thinks necessary has reason to believe that an offence under sub-section (1) of section 4 has been committed, he may issue a warrant for the search for any liquor, intoxicating drug materials, still, utensil, implement or apparatus in respect of which the alleged offence has been committed. Any person who has been entrusted with the execution of such a warrant may detain and search and if he thinks proper, arrest any person found in the place searched, if he has reason to believe such person to be guilty of any offence under this Act:

Provided that every person arrested under this section shall be admitted to bail by the person arresting, if sufficient bail be tendered for his appearance either before a Magistrate or a Police or Prohibition Officer as the case may be.

Before issuing such warrant, the Deputy Commissioner, Prohibition Officer or Magistrate shall examine the informant on oath and the examination shall be reduced into writing in a summary manner and be signed by the informant, and also by the Deputy Commissioner, Prohibition Officer or Magistrate.

Powers of entry and search without warrant.

32. Whenever a Deputy Commissioner, any Prohibition Officer not below such rank as the Government may determine, any Police officer not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector, any officer in charge of a Police station or any other paid or honorary officer authorised by the Government in this behalf has reason to believe that an offence under sub-section (1) of section 4 has been committed and that the delay occasioned by obtaining a search warrant under Section 31 will prevent the execution thereof, he may, after recording his reasons and the grounds of his belief, at any time by day or night enter and search any place and may seize anything found therein which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under this Act, and may detain and search and, if he thinks proper, arrest any person found in such place whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of any offence under this Act:

Provided that every person arrested under this section shall be admitted to bail by such officer as aforesaid if sufficient bail be tendered for his appearance either before a Magistrate or before a Police or Prohibition Officer as the case may be.

Power to enter and inspect places of manufacture and sale.

33. The Deputy Commissioner, any Prohibition Officer not below such rank as the Government may determine or any Police or other paid or honorary officer authorised by the Government in this behalf, may enter and inspect, at any time by day or by night, any place in which it is reasonably suspected that any person draws toddy or carries on the manufacture of any other liquor or any intoxicating drug, or stores any liquor or intoxicating drug, and may enter and inspect, at any time, any place in which any liquor or intoxicating drug is reasonably suspected to be kept for sale by any person; and may examine, test, measure or weigh any material, still, utensil, implement, apparatus, liquor or intoxicating drug found in such place.

Power to use force in case of resistance to entry.

34. If any officer empowered to make an entry under Section 31, 32 or 33 cannot otherwise make such entry, it shall be lawful for him to break open any outer or inner door or window and to remove any other obstacles to his entry into any such place.

Arrest of offenders and seizure of contraband liquor and articles without warrant.

35. Any Prohibition Officer, any officer of the Police or Land Revenue Department, and any other person authorised in that behalf—

(a) may arrest without warrant any person found committing an offence punishable under sub-section (1) of Section 4;

(b) may seize and detain any liquor, drug or other article which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under this Act; and

(c) may search any person, vessel, vehicle, animal, package, receptacle or covering, upon whom, or in or upon which, he may have reasonable cause to suspect any such liquor, drug or other article to be, or to be concealed:

Provided that if the officer or person making the arrest under this section be not empowered under Section 30 to admit to bail, the person arrested shall be forthwith forwarded to an officer so empowered, if such an officer is known to be within a distance of five miles from the place where such arrest took place. And it shall be the duty of such officer empowered as aforesaid to admit such person to bail if sufficient bail be tendered for his appearance before a Police or Prohibition Officer or Magistrate having jurisdiction to inquire into the case.

Arrest of persons refusing to give name or giving fals name.

36. Any person, who may be accused or reasonably suspected of committing an offence against this Act, and who on demand made by any Prohibition Officer or any Officer of the Police or Land Revenue Department or by any other person authorized in that behalf refuses to give his name and residence or who gives a name or residence which such officer or person has reason to believe to be false, may be arrested by such officer or person in order that his name and residence may be ascertained.

Searches how to be made.

37. All searches under the provisions of this Act shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Duty of officials of all departments and local bodies to assist.

38. Officials of all departments of the Government and of all local bodies shall be legally bound to assist any Prohibition or Police Officer in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Offences to be reported, etc.

39. Every official employed by the Government or by any local body, other than a Police or Prohibition Officer, shall be bound to give immediate information at the nearest Police Station or to a Prohibition Officer, of all breaches of any of the provisions of this Act which may come to his knowledge, and all such officials shall be bound to take all reasonable measures in their power to prevent the commission of any such breaches which they may know or have reason to believe are about or likely to be committed.

Landholders and others to give information.

40. All landholders, proprietors, tenants, under-tenants and cultivators who own or hold land or house property on or in which there shall be any tapping for toddy or manufacture of liquors or intoxicating drugs shall in the absence of reasonable excuse be bound to give notice of the same to a Magistrate or to a Prohibition Officer or to an officer of the Police or Land Revenue Departments immediately the same shall have come to their knowledge.

Persons arrested how to be dealt with.

41. (1) When any person is arrested under the provisions of Section 31, 32, 35 or 36, the person arresting him shall, unless bail shall have been accepted under the provisions of Section 31, 32, or 35, forthwith forward him to the nearest Police Station or to a Prohibition Officer, with a report of the circumstances under which such an arrest was made.

Procedure of Police Station Officer.

(2) On such person being brought to a Police Station as aforesaid, the officer in-charge thereof shall either admit him to bail to appear when summoned before himself, or before the Prohibition Officer, if any, or any Police Officer within the limits of the jurisdiction of which Prohibition or Police Officer, the offence with which he is charged is suspected to have been committed, or in default of bail, shall forward him in custody to such officer.

Procedure of Police or Prohibition Officer empowered to inquire.

(3) On any such person being brought in custody before a Prohibition or Police Officer as aforesaid or appearing before such officer, on bail or when such officer as aforesaid has himself made the arrest, such officer shall hold such inquiry as he may think necessary and shall either release such person, or forward him in custody to, or admit him to bail to appear before the Magistrate having jurisdiction to inquire into or try the case:

Provided that if such inquiry is not commenced and completed on the day on which such person is arrested by or is brought or appears before such officer, he shall, if sufficient bail be tendered for the appearance of the person arrested, admit such person to bail to appear on any subsequent day before himself or any other officer having jurisdiction to inquire into the case.

Persons arrested to be admitted to bail.

42. It shall be the duty of any officer arresting any person under the powers conferred by Section 31 or 32 and of any officer in charge of a Police Station or any Police or Prohibition Officer before whom a person arrested is brought or appears under the provisions of Section 41 to release such person on bail if sufficient bail be tendered for his appearance before a Police or Prohibition Officer or before a Magistrate as the case may be.

Bond of accused and sureties.

43. (1) Before any person is released on bail, a bond in such sufficient but not excessive sum of money as the officer admitting him to bail thinks proper shall be executed by such person and by one or more sureties, conditioned that such person shall attend in accordance with the terms of the bond and shall continue to attend until otherwise directed by the Police or Prohibition Officer, before whom he was bailed to attend, or by the Magistrate, as the case may be:

Provided that the officer admitting any such person to bail may in his discretion dispense with the requirement of a surety or sureties to the bond executed by such person.

(2) The Government shall from time to time determine the form of the bond to be used in any local area.

Procedure in case of default of person admitted to a bail to appear before Prohibition Officer.

44. When by reason of default of appearance of a person bailed to appear before a Police or Prohibition Officer, such officer is of opinion that proceedings should be had to compel payment of the penalty or penalties mentioned in the bond of the person bailed or of the surety or sureties, he shall forward the bond to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to inquire into or try the offence of which the person bailed was accused, and the Magistrate shall proceed to enforce the payment of the penalty or penalties in the manner provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure, for the recovery of penalties in the like case of default of appearance by a person bailed to appear before his own Court.

Power of Police or Prohibition officers to summon witnesses.

45. Any Police or Prohibition Officer holding an inquiry in the manner provided in section 41 may summon any person to appear before himself to give evidence on such inquiry or to produce any document relevant thereto which may be in his possession or under his control:

Provided that no such officer shall so summon any person to appear before him if the journey to be made for complying with such summons exceeds ten miles by road or fifty miles by rail or such other limits as the Government may fix.

Terms of summons.

46. Every summons issued under section 45 shall state whether the person summoned is required to give evidence or to produce a document, or both, and shall require him to appear before the said officer at a stated time and place.

Examination of witnesses.

47. Persons so summoned shall attend as required and shall answer all questions relating to such inquiry put to them by such officer. Such answers shall be reduced to writing and shall be signed by such officer.

When attendance of witnesses to be dispensed with, and procedure in such cases.

48. It shall be lawful for Police or Prohibition Officer instead of summoning to appear before him any person who, from sickness or other infirmity, may be unable to do, or who by reason of rank or sex, it may not be proper to summon, to proceed to the residence of such person and there to require him to answer such questions as he may consider necessary with respect to such inquiry; and such person shall be bound so to answer accordingly, and the provisions of section 47 shall apply to such answers.

Power of Police or Prohibition Officer to summon suspected persons.

49. Any Police or Prohibition Officer may after recording his reasons in writing, summon any person to appear before him whom he has good reason to suspect of having committed an offence under this Act. On such person appearing before such officer, the procedure prescribed by sections 41 to 48 shall become applicable.

The officer may also, if he considers it necessary for the investigation of the case, exercise the powers conferred by sections 45 to 48 before summoning the person suspected.

Law relating to criminal courts as to summoning of witnesses to apply.

50. The law for the time being in force as to summonses and compelling the attendance of persons summoned in criminal courts shall, so far as the same may be applicable, apply to any summons issued by a Police or Prohibition Officer and to any person summoned by him to appear under the provisions of this Act.

Report of Police or Prohibition Officer to give jurisdiction to competent Magistrate.

51. When a Police or Prohibition Officer forwards in custody any person accused of an offence under this Act to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to inquire into or try the case, or admits any such person to bail to appear before such Magistrate, such officer shall also forward to such Magistrate a report setting forth the name of the accused person and the nature of the offence with which he is charged and the names of the persons who appear to be acquainted with the circumstances of the case, and shall send to such Magistrate any article which it may be necessary to produce before him. Upon receipt of such report the Magistrate shall inquire into such offence and try the person accused thereof in like manner as if complaint had been made before him as prescribed in the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Powers of Police and Prohibition Officers to cause attendance of witnesses before Magistrate.

52. When a Police or Prohibition Officer forwards in custody any person accused of an offence against this Act to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to inquire into or try the case, or admits him to bail to appear before such Magistrate, such officer shall exercise all the powers conferred by the Code of Criminal Procedure, on an officer in charge of a police station in respect to causing the appearance before such Magistrate of such persons acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case as he considers it necessary that such Magistrate shall examine as witnesses for the prosecution of such case.

Accused not to be detained in custody for a longer period than twenty-four hours without special authority.

53. No person accused or suspected of having committed an offence under this Act shall be detained for a longer period than under all the circumstances of the case is reasonable; and such period shall not, in the absence of the special order of a Magistrate, whether having jurisdiction to try the case or not, exceed twenty-four hours, exclusive of the time necessary for the journey of such person to the place where a Police or Prohibition Officer may be and from thence to the Court having jurisdiction to try the case.

Police to take charge of articles seized.

54. All officers in charge of police stations shall take charge of and keep in safe custody pending the orders of a Magistrate or of a Prohibition Officer, all articles and seized under this Act which may be delivered to them; and shall allow any Prohibition Officer who may accompany such articles to the police station, or who may be deputed for the purpose by his superior officer, to affix his seal to such articles and to take samples of and from them. All samples so taken shall also be sealed with the seal of the officer in charge of the police station.

Power of District Magistrate to transfer cases.

55. The District Magistrate shall have power to transfer any case under this Act pending inquiry or trial before any Magistrate or officer in the district to any other Magistrate or officer therein.

Operation of Code of Criminal Procedure.

56. Nothing contained in this Act, shall affect the operation of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

CHAPTER VI.
